Dear Parents and Carers,

RE: Upcoming NEU Teacher Strikes

As you know, members of the NEU teaching union have been called to strike on dates in April and May. I can now confirm the impact of this industrial action, to the best of my knowledge, at Hindlip CE First School.

Thursday 27th April 2023:

- Orange Class will be open.
- Yellow Class will be open.
- Blue Class will be closed.
- Red Class will be open.

Tuesday 2nd May 2023:

- Orange Class will be open.
- Yellow Class will be closed.
- Blue Class will be closed.
- Red Class will be open.

I will not be asking staff to set remote learning on the strike days, but please make use of our online learning platforms - Purple Mash, TTR and Doodle.

If you would normally make use of Chatterbox after school care on the above days and will not be making use of this due to the strike action, please let Chatterbox know ASAP.

I would once again like to reiterate what I stated in my previous communications, I do not believe that this is a position which any of our staff wish to be in. Our whole team care deeply for our pupils and are wholly committed to providing the very best education they can. Please keep this in mind as the difficulties and frustrations of a strike raise their head.

Yours sincerely,

Mr Gromski
